Meet Our Teacher Residents

As a group, they are enthusiastic, committed and bring a whole lot of positive energy to our school building. Some may refer to them as “student teachers” but they are so much more!

Teacher residents are full-time apprentices in our school learning to be skilled instructors from master teachers and substituting in classes when teachers are out of the room. Because residents are members of grade level teams and highly involved in unit planning, they are able to seamlessly fill in for teachers without students missing out on important instruction.

This year we have eight residents from four different graduate schools in the area: Pace, Concordia, Manhattanville, and Iona. One or two residents are embedded on each grade level. Remember to say “hello” to a resident next time you are in the building!

Top Row: Sarah Ross, 5th Grade; Ally Levy, Kindergarten; Jada Dickens, 2nd Grade
*Not pictured: Jessica Redmond, 3rd Grade, Fiona Keelan, 4th Grade (currently leave replacement in 3rd until 11/1)

Please note: The Teacher Residency Program was originally funded as a pilot program for the 2013-14 school year through the Bronxville School Foundation. Due to its successful implementation, it became a district funded program after that year.
